

MISSION STATEMENT OF THE FEDERAL POLICE

MISSION

The Federal Police contribute, as a component of the integrated police service and under the authority and the responsibility of the competent authorities, to safety and quality of life in our society.

We carry out, in a national and international context, specialised and supralocal police missions and provide support to the police authorities and the local police services.

We do so:

- by applying the principles of integrated functioning, speciality and subsidiarity
- in synergy with our partners.

VISION

As members of the Federal Police, we aim to reach, in the achievement of all our missions and in partnership with the local police, excellence in performing the police function.

To this end, we continuously invest in the commitment, motivation and competence of our staff members.

Together, we build a powerful, transparent, dynamic and innovating organisation which offers an even better service and is recognised and known as such.

VALUES

To carry out this vision, we act in the spirit of the code of ethics and stick to the following values:

- integrity;
- respect;
- open mindedness;
- flexibility;
- service spirit;
- pride of belonging of the organization.

Police